Dear Friends:

Bill and I are delighted to take this opportunity to send greetings to each of you attending the "Gala Party for our Children" of the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation celebrating our nation's 230th birthday.

We commend the Foundation's devotion to provide services and programs to disabled and underprivileged children. From offering fine arts programs to mental health care and physical education, the Foundation's community building efforts have improved the services offered to children in need. Your efforts have a positive influence in their lives and helps strengthen New York City's communities.

Please accept our best wishes for a wonderful celebration.

Sincerely yours,
