New York, NY 10019

Dear Ms. Fenton:

The mission that you have chosen to remember and honor your mother with, the Eve Fenton Foundation for Disabled Indigent Children, will hopefully bring to children desperately in need of help, the skills and services that will make an important difference in their lives.

Disabled, indigent children have a set of very special needs that are often neglected by our society. Struggling with the physical realities as well as the emotional scarring of indigence, this unique group of children will certainly benefit from the attention and resources your foundation will provide.

I wish you and your esteemed Board of Directors the best of luck as you move toward making your vision a reality.

Sincerely,

JERROLD NADLER
Member of Congress
