

Office of the Manhattan Borough President
City of New York

Proclamation

Whereas: We are proud to acknowledge those individuals and organizations who have long devoted their time and energy to our community; and

Whereas: The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation, dedicated to supporting disabled, indigent, minority children and children and young adults battling cancer, diabetes, neurological maladies and other debilitating medical conditions, is today hosting a Financial Literacy Event at the American Museum of Finance; and

Whereas: The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation welcomes all colors, creeds and religions with open arms; and

Whereas: The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation was founded and led by Vicki Fenton, a true inspiration to us all with her tireless enthusiasm for serving others and her commitment to those she serves;

Now therefore, I, Scott M. Stringer, President of the Borough of Manhattan, do hereby commend and congratulate The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation on this Wednesday, November 10, 2010.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Manhattan to be affixed.
