

United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

The Honorable Charles E. Schumer

PROCLAMATION

Whereas: On the sixth day of February, in the year two thousand and twelve, Vicky Fenton will be recognized for her charitable deeds and dedication to empower children; and

Whereas: Vicky has dedicated her life to assisting people achieve their goals whether it is providing children comprehensive educational programs, or helping as an intermediary between the community and businesses groups. As one of the nations "fastest growing foundations" Ms. Fenton has ensured that each and every child affiliated with the Eve Fenton Love All Foundation has access to cultural, educational, and nutritional resources, therefore enabling them to make good decisions in life; and

Whereas: Founded in honor of her mother, Eve Fenton, the Foundation has helped disadvantaged and special needs children through the Eternal Flame of Life program. Through comprehensive outreach programs and administering fundraisers for life threatening and formidable medical conditions, Vicky has helped New Yorkers live life to the fullest; and

Whereas: I commend and recognize the dedicated staff, volunteers, mentors and executive officers of the Eve Fenton Love All Foundation, for providing the necessary resources to New York City families and residents. Regardless of Vicky's interests, she has always had this incredible and selfless need to serve others. Her dedication and commitment to New Yorkers and our great state, is an inspiration to us all; and therefore

Be It Known: That I, Senator Charles E. Schumer, do hereby recognize and observe with those gathered here today to honor Vicky Fenton for her commitment to the Eve Fenton Love All Foundation and to our community. I know she will continue to serve others for many years to come.

*Signed this 6th Day of February in the Year
Two Thousand and Twelve*

Charles Schumer

Charles E. Schumer
United States Senator