Whereas, on behalf of all Brooklynites, I salute and commend Vicki Fenton for her inspirational passion and drive, following in her mother and grandmother's footsteps and providing services that sustain and nurture New York City's families, from drafting documents to aid the elderly and disabled in legal proceedings, to keeping a supermarket open for the community, to assisting with the placement of numerous youths into educational institutions and business opportunities, among so many other achievements and distinctions, I congratulate her as she is duly and most justifiably recognized and honored by her peers and by those whom she has helped, and I thank her for making New York City a better place to live, work, and raise a family;
