PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 111TH CONGRESS

IN TRIBUTE TO THE EVE FENTON LOVE-ALL
FOUNDATION

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY
OF NEW YORK
IN THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation for its noble efforts to improve the health, happiness, and education of children in need in our nation's greatest city.

Founded by its President, Vicki Fenton, in loving memory of her mother Eve, the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation seeks to offer support to children from underprivileged backgrounds or who are confronting adverse health conditions by organizing events and programs at schools, clinics, hospitals, and community organizations. Ms. Fenton is a tireless and dedicated advocate who has devoted herself to the memory of her mother, the Foundation named in her loving memory, and the deserving youth it serves.

Through its network of sponsors and volunteers, the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation strives to provide hope and inspiration to countless families of children with special needs, as well as young adults battling cancer, diabetes, neurological problems, and other debilitating medical conditions. By sponsoring celebrations, special events such as parties in pediatric wards, and a variety of other programs, many based at prominent health care institutions in the New York City metropolitan area such as Mount Sinai Hospital, the Foundation works to improve the overall health care, nutrition and education of those it serves. The Foundation also develops partnerships with schools in New York City such as the Frederick Douglass Academy VI High School in Queens.

Through the generosity of more than 160 sponsors, the Foundation has been able to organize more than 40 events, among them hospital fund-raisers, educational events at museums, financial literacy seminars for young students at the New York Stock Exchange, sports events at Shea Stadium, and "run-a-thons" with the New York Road Runners Foundation.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the many contributions of the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation.

CAROLYN B. MALONEY
