Citation

Whereas, It is the tradition of the State of New York to pay tribute to those organizations, such as The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation, Inc., which have greatly contributed to the well-being of their community and society; and

Whereas, Since its founding by Vicki Fenton in memory of her mother, The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation has tirelessly worked to support disabled, indigent, and minority children, as well as children and young adults battling cancer and other life-threatening medical conditions; and

Whereas, The Foundation, which has earned the title of the fastest growing foundation in the nation and is also known as the Dynamo Foundation, has, through its generosity and compassion, impacted the lives of over 25,000 families in the last three years; and

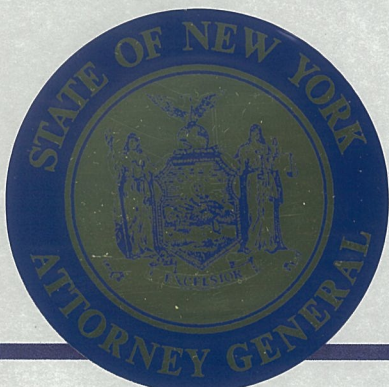

Whereas, The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation has become a vital partner with hospitals, clinics, and community organizations through its sponsorship of fifty events over the past three years; the number of events will increase to fifty-nine in the near future and will build on The Foundation's tremendous past success on events such as education programs at museums, sports events at Shea Stadium, events at hospitals, hosting run-a-thons with the NY Road Runners Foundation, and financial literacy seminars for young students at the New York State Stock Exchange; and

Whereas, One such event is planned for November 4, 2009, when underprivileged college students and honors high school students who are taking courses at Baruch College will attend the Foundation's latest Financial Literacy Event; and

Whereas, These students are fortunate to have an organization such as The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation sponsoring this event and giving them the opportunity to obtain crucial information that will have a positive impact on the rest of their academic career and beyond; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Office of the Attorney General applauds The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation for its efforts on this Financial Literacy Event and throughout the year; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Citation be presented on November 4, 2009 to Vicki Fenton, CEO and President of the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation.
